We have scheduled our motorcycle collection for early in the morning to start our tour as soon as the traffic subsides around Cape Town. We follow the main routes out of Cape Town and shortly after we add a few nice surprises to our route. These include some scenic mountain passes crossing into the hinterland as we head towards Sutherland – South Africa's astronomical capital. We continue our motorcycle journey along the N1 heading for Meirings Poort via Prince Albert. Here we reside at the foothills of the majestic Swartberg Mountains in a one horse town called De Rust. After a well deserved nights rest, we continue along the Karoo back-roads to Craddock. The Eastern Cape is the birthplace of Nelson Mandela and home to the Xhosa people. Here numerous important chapters in the country's history were written with the arrival of the 1820 British Settlers.

The R72 leads us along the Eastern Cape Coast until we reach Addo Elephant Park. We leave our motorcycles behind to enjoy a short safari to view these giants in their natural habitat before we continue our ride. We briefly visit the Garden Route as we ride through the Tsitsikamma forests visiting the likes of the Tsitsikamma Coastal Park and Bloukrans Bridge where they operate the world's highest bungee jump operation at 216m's. We leave the best for last as we sweep along the gentle curves of the superbly surfaced Outeniqua Pass crossing the Outeniqua Mountains. Back in the Little Karoo we gently steer our motorcycles towards the wide open spaces surrounding Oudtshoorn.

The next day our journey takes us to the southern tip of Africa along Route 62 through the scenic Tradouws Pass. We ride past the infamous Ronnie-Sex-Shop as well as past acres of fruit orchards and cattle farms. Through the steep cliffs of the Tradouws Pass we bike into Swellendam where we join the N2 taking us to the southernmost tip of Africa and thereafter back home via Clarence Drive along the eastern shores of False Bay. This motorcycle ride includes various mountain passes and scenic detours to be added if the participant feels like it as it will add to the overall enjoyment.
